

First Friday Art Walk September 6, 2019

By Jane Warnock
Coordinator, First Friday Art Walk

Fall is in the air! Friday will be the perfect evening to stroll through Old Town Pocatello and enjoy this month's First Friday Art Walk. From 5-8pm, don't miss this opportunity to view and experience art by local, regional and national artists. Plan to stay Downtown for a delicious dinner with selections from around the world at any one of our authentic international restaurants. The night life will continue with live music and cold beverages throughout, both the east and west sides. We look forward to seeing you! Be sure to visit www.oldtownpocatello.com for more information about events and activities in Historic Old Town Pocatello. All are welcome and parking is free!

Art Walk Locations - Eastside Old Town

Gallows Custom Framing and Gifts, 150 S. 4th, In honor of Read a Book Day, Gallows will be offering a special 20% off the "What You Do Matters" book set! This set includes "What to do with an Idea", "What to do with a Problem", and "What to do with a Chance". These books have been awarded gold seals by the Independent Publishers Book Awards. They will also be hosting a tour of their framing shop. Come see the Art of Framing! They will show you behind the scene glimpses of what they love doing best. If you love it, frame it!

Portneuf Valley Brewing, 615 S. 1st Ave., will welcome painter Brad Ren Nelson. The loft opens for dinner at 6pm and at 8:30pm the music will begin. Plan to rock out to The Funk:30 Band. No cover.

Art Walk Locations - Westside Old Town

The Pocatello Art Center, 444 N. Main, will host featured artist Lisa Anderson. She will be showing her creative paper art. Lisa will also give a demonstration on Thursday the 5th at 6:30pm and a workshop on Saturday the 7th from 9am-Noon.

American Family Insurance, 427 N. Main, will be hosting art from the Pocatello Veteran's Center Art Group and Jewelry by Adrienne Kezirian. Refreshments will be served.

Main Street Music, 401 N. Main, will welcome a new local band, Penny Layn, who will be playing live.

The Elwen Cottage, 334 N. Main, is excited to present an evening of live music with professional singer and musician Kieshianna.

Poky Dot Boutique, 201 N. Main, will be open, showing work by local artists.

Villano's Italian, 165 N. Main, will be featuring their famous Cheeseburger Pickle Bacon Pizza and soup on Friday. Stop in and enjoy this Art Walk special that is not to be missed.

Keller Williams Realty, 150 N. Main, to host Pat Bingham - Canvas Acrylic Artist and greeting card designs. Katie Hopkins - Ceramic Artist, and Laura Renee - Fairy Fox Design - Face Painting.

Vain & Vintage, 149 N. Main, will be featuring jewelry artist Kalani Fayle, showing her upcycled creations which are one of a kind! Refreshments will be served.

PV's Uncorked on Main, 138 N. Main, will host Isabelle and Nadja raw and unfiltered honey from local wildflowers.

Cottonwood Junction, 141 N. Main, will be featuring the brand new, exciting and colorful Old Town Alley Murals, located in the alley behind their store. They will also be showing the work of resident artist Sherri Timmons, the Gear Goddesses, and ceramic work by Danielle Ludwig and Ben Campbell. Ludwig and Campbell will be discussing their work processes. Keith Ward - Jazz on a Stick - will be playing. Refreshments will be provided.

Old Town Mercantile and Antiques, 134 N. Main, will be hosting Sweet and Succulent Gifts; Aronia Brown, Andrew Peterson and Nani Lira, who will be showing an assortment of succulents and rare cacti, and terrariums. Also featured during Art Walk will be Kevin and Angie Hill, owners of Buds & Bloomers floral artistry. Refreshments will be served.

Cherub Capers Creations, 115 N. Main, to welcome local artist, and will show vintage art and treasures.

Studio 118, 118 N. Arthur, will feature work by local metal artists.

Jamie Findlay Photography, 100 N. Main St., invites you to stop in during Art Walk for the soft opening of her brand new studio located in the recently renovated upper floor of The Paris. Also featured during the evening will be oil, acrylic and digital paintings by local artist Dakota Watson.

Kanda's & Company, 159 S. Main, will be celebrating their first Art Walk at their new store. Dennis Collins will be their featured artist showing a variety of his self-framed photography. Refreshments will be served.

Gate City Gallery, 315 W. Center, to host local artists.

Deckadence Board Shoppe, 326 W. Center, will be hosting digital artist and graphic designer Paige Weber. Weber includes portraits of animals and people in her work. She also re-imagines neon signs through her brand, Gumption.

Station Square, 200 S. Main, is excited to host a variety of art and entertainment for First Friday Art Walk:

Poky Kids will be hosting a ribbon cutting celebration at 5:15pm. Be sure to stop by and see this cute new store and enjoy face painting for the kids by Lizlie Anderson.

Linda Davies will be at Station Square with the "Shirt Off his Back" quilt. She will be selling raffle tickets and all proceeds go to The Monarch restoration. The drawing for the quilt will be held during the Kind Community Kick-Off Celebration on September 16 in front of the building.

Artist Nick Hottman will be showing his art. He believes in creating art everyone can enjoy.

Artist Josh Davis will be showing his jewelry and wildflower bouquets.

The Mighty Rock Farmers, a local band, will be performing from 5 to 6:30pm with their unique signature and original songs.

And, Rakatanga, a gypsy jazz band traveling through the area, will be performing from 6:30 to 8pm.

The Elks, 410 S. Main, will have live music by Byers and Murdoch from 6:30pm-9:30pm.

Brewfest 2 will be returning to North Main Street on Saturday. From 4-9pm enjoy local, regional and national craft beers, great food and two live bands. Tickets are available at www.gatecitybrewfest.com and if you purchase in advance, before midnight on Friday, you will save $5 per ticket. If you love Gate City Brewfest in March, you don't want to miss this street style beer event!

Thank you for loving your downtown and supporting the events Old Town Pocatello, Inc. brings to our community!

*First Friday Art Walk is proudly hosted by Old Town Pocatello, Inc. and the participating merchants and businesses in the Old Town area.
We hope you enjoy our art community!*

