

FIRST FRIDAY ART WALK November 5 5-8PM

Art, Music, Shopping, Dining & Free Admission!

Historic Downtown Pocatello

Take a look at what our businesses have planned for tomorrow's First Friday Art Walk, 5-8pm:
The November First Friday Art Walk Event Guide, By Jane Warnock, First Friday Art Walk Coordinator.

Come for a charming evening stroll through our shops and galleries featuring local and regional art, music, food, fashion and more. Plan to stay Downtown for a delicious dinner, drinks, and live music.

Flowers by LD, 715 N. Main, will be hosting their annual Holiday Open House from 5-8pm. They've been busy decorating the shop and turning it into a Christmas wonderland. Be sure to stop in!

Bru House Galilei, 502 N. Main, will host artist Mariah with her handmade holiday décor items. Stop in for coffee and treats.

the elwen cottage, 334 N. Main, has a shop full of treasures and arts and crafts supplies.

The Grecian Key Restaurant, 314 N. Main, to host live music by Ray. Enjoy a delicious dinner and live music.

The ISU Marketing Association will be at SNAKE RIVER FLY, and will be selling hot chocolate (weather permitting) featuring artist Luke Kirby and his t-shirt designs.

The Odd Fellows & Rebekah's, 325 W. Lander, will be hosting their 2nd Annual Fall Arts and Crafts Show on Friday from 4-8pm and on Saturday from 9am to 4pm. Admission is one canned food item or a $1 donation for the Idaho Food Bank. 12 and under is free.

Enchantments, 233 N. Main, will be open, showing a variety of artwork and jewelry. Lots of new inventory is the shop, just in time for the holidays!

Star Route Brewery, 218 N. Main, will be hosting artist Maddie Downs.

The Bacon Experience, 204 N. Main, will be open during Art Walk featuring their delicious variety of handmade bacon specialties.

Poky Dot Boutique, 201 N. Main, will be open and showing work by local artisans.

Old Town Alley Outdoor Gallery, behind the 100 block of N. Main St., will be open to stroll through and experience the amazing talent in our community.

Villano's Italian, 165 N. Main, will be featuring their date night special that includes any 2 pastas, any breadbasket & 2 side salads for $28.99. Their Art Walk pasta special for the evening will be Lobster Shrimp Gouda Bacon Mac & Cheese.

Goodbye Hello Crafts and Boutique, 144 N. Main, will be featuring Rae & Jean yarn creations and it's a sale too. The featured yarn creations will be 15% off all week.

PV's Uncorked on Main Venue, 138 N. Main, will feature two artists, Sheila McCullough with seasonal entry signs in multiple sizes, and The Blind Saw - wood cutting boards. They will also be serving a special menu for the evening.

Old Town Mercantile & Antiques, 134 N. Main, will be hosting two local landscape artists, Jeris Brown and Jane Guidinger. They will display some of their favorite oil paintings. They have been painting together for over 15 years and both studied under Jerry Younkin Griffin.

Cottonwood Junction, 141 N Main, will be hosting Alesha Kelley with her pottery.

Studio 118, 118 N. Main, will be presenting new pieces, as well as previously viewed metal forms by metal smiths Celeste Otasua, Jan Smith, Gail Dial, Pam Lawson, and Jeff Davies. To remain mindful of continued safety and health, the studio will be asking all visitors to wear a mask while visiting the gallery/studio.

Cherub Capers Creations by A.E.Churba Design, LLC, 115 N. Main, is showing a variety of treasures and collections.

Brick 243 Gastropub, 243 W. Center, will be featuring their Sausage & Peppers in marinara "Sunday Gravy" made from a recipe handed down through generations. Served as a sharable with bread, perfect for date night! Be sure to look through the wine selection, a fantastic lineup!

The Shady Lady, Too "ArtiQues" at 315 W. Center will be featuring artist Ron Lewis and his "Whimsical Hand Sculpted Holiday Characters", also enjoy "The Artistry of Holiday Decorating" by The Ladies! Join them for Holiday Cheer and music in the Historic Kane Building.

Deckadence Board Shoppe, 326 W. Center, will be hosting Carrie Morse who is originally from Boise and her iridescent and reflective art works which are inspired by nature and light.

Cassy's Caring Paws, 123 S. Main, will be hosting custom made wood décor by Ideas on Wood and resin art for dog memorials.

Kanda's & Co., 159 S. Main, Lynette Neifert will be performing throughout the evening.

Crafter's Market at Station Square, 200 S. Main, will be open during Art Walk. Stop in to see the handmade items available for this special evening.

DNH Studios, Station Square Suite G, will be hosting new Co-Retailers. They have added five new product lines from area artisans and will have them on hand to meet and greet you all.

Station Square, Pocatello, 200 S. Main, will also be hosting art students from Highland High School.

Off the Rails Brewing, 228 S. Main, will be featuring art by Samantha Landvik and Teresa Roberts. At 6:30pm Alexa Sluder will begin performing.

Mind Your Body, 234 S. Main, will be hosting the ISU Biology Department with students Anna Jirik and Melissa Rivas. Find out what your brain has in common with a bird brain and build your own play-doh-brain. All ages welcome, 5:30-7:30pm.

The Yellowstone Restaurant, inside the Historic Yellowstone Hotel, will be featuring Smoked Prime Rib for the evening.

The Union Taproom, inside the Historic Yellowstone Hotel, will be hosting Happy Hour from 4-6pm and Open Mic beginning at 7pm.

Pocatello Elks Lodge #674, 410 S. Main St., will host music by the band Pop the Clutch from 7:30-10:30pm. Food & music is open to the public.

Portneuf Valley Brewing, 615 S. 1st, four artists will be showing work: Tim Norton, Sagebrush Steppe Land Trust Artist in Residence, Cindy Walton, last year's SSLT Artist in Residence, Teresa Roberts and Paige Weber. Proceeds from a selection of pieces sold during the display will support the trust's mission. Grab a cold brew, enjoy dinner, and live music in the Loft featuring Paul Bodily beginning at 8:30pm.

During Art Walk, PVB will also be giving away the October display. Basically, the display is divided into posters and each poster has two activities (sections). The posters will be separated into sections and the first person pictured in one of the sections who claims it can walk out the door with it.

Historic Downtown Alley located in the alley way on the 300 block of E. Center., will be open to stroll through and experience the amazing talent in our community.

Gallows Frames & Gifts, 150 S. 4th , will host mixed media artist, Kelly Rae Roberts. Refreshments will be served.

Craftology Company, 525 E. Center, will host a 'make-and-take' art project. Stop by and welcome this brand new business to their first First Friday Art Walk. On Saturday they will be celebrating their Grand Opening from 10am to 4pm. Food, prizes and more!

First Friday Pub Crawl will take place on Friday from 6-10pm. Each participating bar/brewery will have drink specials & you get a ticket with each drink for opportunities to win some cool swag at the end of the Crawl. This month start at Oasis Sports Bar then head to the First National Bar, then to Cue & Brews (new to the Crawl), to The Union Taproom and end at Star Route Brewery. $5 wristband to participate and all proceeds this month will benefit the "Friends of the Pocatello Animal Shelter."

Shopping
Business
Entertainment
History
Downtown